"Hark the Herald Angels Sing" has roots that date back over 200 years. Charles Wesley, founder of the Methodist church, penned the words as a poem to be recited on Christmas Day. It was adapted as a song by Wesley's friend and colleague, George Whitfield and has been enjoyed ever since.

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
- Romans 5:8

Thank you to everyone who purchased a poinsettia. They can be taken home today. If you have not paid for them, please do so.
